Terms & Conditions

(a) The GAA Club Constitution forms the cornerstone of overall governance of Young Irelands GAA Club. Each club participant (including participants in Ladies Football and Camogie) is registered as a member of the GAA.

(b) All players must have FULL Membership paid to avail of insurance/injury benefit fund.

(c) All membership applications and renewals are accepted subject to the rules of the Club Constitution. In the event of an application not being accepted, any payments made will be refunded.

(d) Insurance/Injury Fund. The GAA reminds all players, that the playing of Gaelic Football & Hurling involves the risk of Injury and it is each individual registered player's responsibility to familiarise themselves with the terms and benefits of the GAA Injury Benefit Fund. Each player needs to ensure that they have adequate cover in place to meet their own individual needs and personal circumstances. The GAA Injury Benefit Fund is only in place to cover benefits which cannot be claimed elsewhere and is a benefit cover only. Members should not use the fund as their only recourse or be dependent on the fund to compensate them fully for any losses associated with the injury sustained. In the event of a claim following an injury to a Juvenile Player (under 18 years), it is the Parent's responsibility to fill out the insurance forms and contact the Insurance Company. The Insurance Company will require original receipts for any claims. Please keep copies of these before sending receipts to the insurance company. Please check the Club Registration section of the website to check your clubs code specific Insurance Information as not all funds are the same.

(e) GAA Approved Helmets must be worn at all hurling training sessions, warm ups, games and in the Ball Alley. Players and parents should note that not all products provided by some of the manufacturers meet the standards of IS:355. Once the helmet or faceguard is modified in anyway, the player is playing at an increased risk of injury and is not covered under the terms of the GAA Player Injury Benefit Fund. Injuries suffered when not wearing a helmet will not be covered by the club or the insurance company.

Mouthguard's must be worn for all football games, including warm ups and training as per GAA rule. Failure to do so will invalidate any insurance claims and the club will not cover any expense accruing from such injuries if the player was not wearing a gum shield.

(f) Young Irelands GAA Clubs Code of Behaviour addresses the minimum appropriate levels of behaviour, practice and conduct required from our Young Players, Coaches, Supporters, Parents/Guardians, Referees and Clubs. It is the responsibility of all members to be familiar with the guidelines set forth in the code of conduct.

All information pertaining to Club Membership; Rates, Application Forms, Code of Behaviour, Injury Benefit Funds and Claims Procedures can be found on the Membership Section of the Club website. www.YoungIrelandsgaa.com/membership.
